This Tunquen Chile house is oriented toward the south to take full advantage of the ocean view and Algarrobo Bay. Oriented so the windows maximize the sun light from everywhere the entire year. The gardens feature native flora, preserving the natural environment.

The home has a swimming pool surrounded by pines and other trees and vegetation, keeping the view and maintaining the privilege of the gorgeous views.

All wooden decks are built with treated wood, keeping open the best views to the ocean. Built over a strong concrete foundation surrounding the home to tolerate the strongest earthquakes common in the area. All ocean side bedrooms and bathrooms windows covered with wooden shutters.

The entire home is environmental and ecologically self-sufficient with an extensive Solar System and water well that will accommodate the entire home & land.

- Waterfront, panoramic view
- Ocean view and Algarrobo Bay view
- Private pool and spa
- Open floor plan with stone fireplace and bar
- High ceilings
- Cabana and gazebo
- Master retreat
- Custom-built solar system
